About the event

We are proud to announce the picturesque region of Andalucía as the location for the 24th European H.O.G.® Rally, set to take place between Thursday 18th and Sunday 21st June 2015 on the south-west coast of Spain. We look forward to welcoming thousands of passionate customers to the region as we continue to celebrate their incredible commitment and fantastic dedication to the most iconic motorcycle brand in the world.

Situated in the luxurious surroundings of Puerto Sherry between Cádiz and Jerez, riders will be able to soak-up the beautiful Andalucían sunshine while enjoying a leisurely spin around the stunning countryside roads of Spain. From scenic coastal roads overlooking the Mediterranean Sea to the snow-capped Baetic Mountains, this year's event is set to provide the ultimate biker's paradise.

Harley-Davidson and H.O.G. are encouraging all riders to purchase tickets in advance for this exclusive event, which will be a ticket-only event. The rally will be providing lots of entertainment for riders during the long weekend, including a top line-up of live music and a host of other exciting activities. There will also be opportunity to demo the latest Harley-Davidson motorcycles and join the iconic parade, one of the highlights of the weekend. The famous Harley-Davidson Custom Bike Show will also give visitors the chance to see some very special and unique motorcycles.

Tickets will be available to everyone with special concessions for HOG members.
